What is the Current Awareness Service?

Our librarians will set up a Current Awareness Alert for you on specific topics, authors, and/or journals, of interest to you.

- You will receive an email every week that cites any new articles that have been published on your topics or in your journals.
- You can request the full text of any of these articles by contacting us.
- Contact us to set up a Current Awareness Alert, or complete the reverse side of this form.
